Merry Christmas!

As this is the last column you'll read before the holidays, I'd like to take this opportunity to wish a Merry Christmas to all of our readers. And a Happy Hanukkah or Kwanzaa as well. It makes no difference which holiday, if any, you celebrate; what is more important is that the spirit of the season is within your hearts and minds. We need to remember those less fortunate than us by either the generosity of giving or simply paying them a visit. And, those serving our Country in distant places, whether a few hundred or several thousand miles away.

I'm writing this article on our 21st wedding anniversary; many of those years have been good and some were tough years either financially or personally. I'm certain that's been true for all of us and at this time of year it is important for all of us to remember where we've been and where we're going. "There but for the Grace of God go I" is something to reflect on when we consider those around us. In the spirit of the season, we should count our blessings and extend them to those who may need them.

Once again, I had the chance to attend the holiday concert by the Air Force Academy Band. Though it's tough to judge, this was certainly one of the best concerts I've seen them do. Lots of spirit, variety along with some excellent talents. Pueblo is very lucky to be able to host this free event. I'd also be remiss if I didn't mention the recital given by the Pueblo Chorale and Children's Choir a few weeks ago. That's another one you should remember to get to next year.

Looking over the weather report for the upcoming week, I'm thinking that maybe we all overdid singing that Bing Crosby classic "White Christmas." But of course this is Pueblo and after several predicted days of snow this week, we could still be celebrating our own version of Christmas in Hawaii next week. My perspective has changed since I was a kid. Although I still love some snow around Christmas time, I'm thinking that by around the 30th it should be gone and temperatures should start warming up for Spring. I suppose that's a bit of wishful thinking unless I'm thinking of relocating to Phoenix.

The other line from a Christmas song that comes to mind is "Gee, the traffic is terrific" from "There's no place like home for the holidays." I have to admit that I never thought I'd complain about traffic in Pueblo. But it will give me some good material for a January article!

Have a Great Pueblo Holiday Season!

For children who have to deal with the harsh realities of life, Volunteers of America is there to help. Since 1896, we've worked in communities across the country to restore hope and rebuild lives. Today, we provide care to abused and neglected children, adoption services, child care and emergency shelter.

The need has never been greater. And we are there to offer support and compassion to create positive change in a child's life.

CIC reminds families about college finance options

CIC 12/14 – College In Colorado, an initiative of the State of Colorado, is reminding all middle and high schools in Colorado of two opportunities for middle and high school students to already begin saving money for college – the College Opportunity Fund Stipend and the College In Colo-ro Scholarship. Applications for both financial opportunities can be found on the website CollegeInColorado.org. College Opportunity Fund Stipend (COF)

All undergraduate students eligible to pay in-state tuition at public colleges or universities in Colorado are eligible for the College Opportunity Fund Stipend. Students may begin applying as early as age 13. There are certain requirements for COF eligibility and can be found on the CollegeInColorado.org website.

“Students can receive more than $2,500 toward the cost of higher education in Colorado,” said Dawn Taylor Owens, executive director of College In Colorado. “This is virtually free money for students to apply toward their college education. If you do not apply you forfeit the stipend. I urge every Colorado high school student to log onto CollegeInColorado.org and apply now.”

College In Colorado Scholarship (CIC)

Administered by CollegeInvest, the College In Colorado Scholarship rewards high-need students who are academically prepared for college. Students may qualify for up to $1,500 per year to help with their higher education financing.

“Colorado students in the 8th and 9th grade are eligible for the College In Colorado Scholarship,” said Taylor Owens, “and may apply on-line through CollegeInColorado.org. Students must meet other requirements, which are also highlighted on our Website.”

The State of Colorado initiated College In Colorado as a statewide effort to improve college access and change expectations about college for all Colorado students. Each year, Colorado outranks the nation with the greatest number of degree holders per capita, yet only one in five Colorado ninth-grade students will earn a college degree.

Colorado website helps students plan, apply and pay for college

CIC 12/14 – College In Colorado, a state initiative, has a website, CollegeInColorado.org, designed specifically to help high school and middle school students plan, apply and pay for college.

Some features of the Website include:

- Application for —the Colorado Opportunity Fund (all high school students), and
- the College In Colorado Scholarship (8th and 9th grade students)
- Information about financial aid opportunities and the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid)
- Scholarship search
- On-line career planning
- Resume builders
- Virtual college campus tours

“CollegeInColorado.org is an incredible resource for students,” says Dawn Taylor Owens, executive director of CIC. “Our website makes college affordable and accessible for any young person in the State of Colorado. It is my hope that every high school student in Colorado takes advantage of the website and starts their account today!”

In addition, CIC offers a multitude of free services to high schools including website training for students, counselors and teachers; motivational lectures, and guidance on choosing a pre-collegiate program. •
