July 4 - Independence Day

Business recycling hosted by City-County Health

PbloHealth 7/22—The Pueblo City-County Health Department is hosting a class for businesses to better understand commercial recycling options in the Pueblo area. The free class will be held Thursday, July 29 from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. at the Regional Library, 100 E. Abriendo Ave., on the first floor.

Attendees will learn about reuse options for businesses and recycling items from batteries and plastic to paint and fluorescent bulbs. All businesses will receive a free recycling kit for four and eight foot fluorescent bulbs.

Implementing an effective waste reduction and recycling program in your business does not have to be difficult or expensive. Businesses can save money through recycling efforts and "green" procurement practices, as well as increase public relations. Businesses will learn about new regulations and what they can and cannot throw away. For more information and to RSVP, call the Recycle Hotline at 583-4924.

PERSPECTIVE

by Tribune Editor Jon Heaton

Reality versus Myth...

The general wisdom for the past 6 or 8 months has been that the American people are unhappy with the Democrats and Obama, and that they're going to clip their wings at the November election.

It is no coincidence that the old mythology about the need for smaller government and lower taxes has been chanted incessantly by the various conservative fronts. They claim to champion the battle against everything the Obama Administration and the Congress have sought to accomplish since January 20, 2009.

In fact, the conservatives are so consumed with what they are against that few of them have proposed any solutions for the problems this Administration is already striving to deal with.

The difference in point of view between moderate conservatives and moderate liberals is noticeable but not radical. Each side sees the government as a complicated set of tools with which to fine-tune this nation's business, transportation, education, communication and justice systems to achieve the fairest outcome for all citizens.

The big difference in outlook shows up between classic, inflexible liberal and conservative adherents. The libs want to blame all problems on business while the cons blame them on government. The libs favor programs such as universal health care and universal public education, all of which require more funding. The conservatives favor reducing the tax and regulation burdens on business and investors, which tends to shrink government and its financial oversight functions.

When the moderates work in the middle to achieve compromise, Congress functions fairly well. Nowadays, the moderates are held hostage by the extremists, particularly on the right. Every attempt to fight our depression is stymied by those who want to balance the budget at a time when it is both impossible and absurd.

We suspect the depression threat cannot be met successfully unless American voters put more Democrats and moderate Republicrats in Congress in November. The Obama Administration has been forced to fight our financial disaster with their hands tied...all because the voters failed to give the Dems a sufficient majority in Congress two years ago.

If the voters sucker on the balogna coming out of the conservative mud machine, Congress and many state legislatures will be dominated next year by lawmakers bent on committing economic suicide. Their knee-jerk desire to starve government into hopeless impotence would surely result in unnecessary suffering. jfh
